Artist Impression

Vincent van Gogh

Vincent van Gogh, born in the Netherlands in 1853, struggled to find his path before becoming an artist. In his early thirties, he joined his brother Theo in Paris, where he met Gauguin and Monet, adopting the impressionist style. In 1888, he moved to Arles, hoping to start an art school, but his fragile mental health led to conflicts, including a falling out with Gauguin. During this time, he produced many works but also suffered severe breakdowns, famously cutting part of his ear. He later admitted himself to an asylum in Saint-Rémy but continued to struggle with delusions and depression. Virtually unrecognized in his lifetime, he sold only one painting. In 1890, he shot himself and died days later, gaining fame only posthumously as a misunderstood genius.

Short Story Jokes

The Roommate

A mother visits her son for dinner. He lives with a female friend.

During the meal, she can't help but notice how pretty his roommate is. She has long been suspicious of a relationship between the two and this has only made her more curious.

Over the course of the evening she watches the two interact and wonders if there is more between them. Reading his mother's thought, her son volunteers, "I know what you must be thinking, but I assure you, we are just roommates."

A week later, his roommate comes to him saying, "Ever since your mother came to dinner, I've been unable to find the silver plate. You don't suppose your mother took it, do you?"

He replies:
"Well, I doubt it, but I'll email her just to be sure!"

He sits down and writes to his mother:

"Dear mother,
Since your visit last week, the silver plate has been missing. I am not saying that you took the silver plate from my house, and I'm not saying that you didn't take it, but the fact remains that it has been missing ever since you were here for dinner."

Your loving son.

Several days later, he receives an email response from his mother:
Dear son,
I'm not saying that you do sleep with your roommate, and I'm not saying that you don't sleep with her but the fact remains that if she was sleeping in her OWN bed, she would have found the silver plate by now, under her pillow.

Your loving mother.
